

2018 ART INSTALLATIONS

Beyond The Horizon: The Journey

Lines, movement and patterns from past Festivals are reinvented and re-imagined to create a new rhythm that inspires.

East of Fourth Street Bridge

Ann Arkebauer - Leawood, KS

Dance of the Dragonfly

From humble beginnings as pieces and parts, these whimsical metal sculptures of insects and flowers come to life in the hands of artist Corey Haden.

Events Center Bridge

Corey Haden, Salina, KS

Dream Dragon Bridge

Journey through unconscious symbols under an amazing dreamscape of mythical themes!

Fourth Street Bridge

Bill Godfrey - Tarentum, PA

Face Parade

A continual procession of Festival faces and figures.

At Paintchoo Plaza

Amy and Tim Carlson - Lawrence, KS

Four Directions

Look fast and you might catch a glimpse of these roving sculptures placed atop staff golf carts. The inspiration behind these sculptures comes from the cardinal directions from the Chinese constellations.

The white tiger represents the west, red bird for the south, the blue dragon for the east, and the black turtle for the north. Try to spot them all!

Throughout the Park

Juniper 'TJ' Tangpuz - Lawrence, KS

Friends for Life

Inspired by the Salina Animal Shelters work and the animals they find homes for, renowned KC graffiti artist Scribe will create this mural onsite so that Festival goers can watch the characters in this mural evolve over the weekend. Once finished, it will be displayed at the Salina Animal Shelter.

South of Bravo Stage

Scribe - Kansas City, MO

Henna: Get Your Art On

Mehndi is one of the oldest beautification rituals in the world, and is still enjoyed by millions across the globe. Intricate details are applied containing auspicious symbols for love, prosperity and luck.

South of Bravo Stage

The Henna Chicks, Raven and Luna - Glenpool, OK

Into Orbit - Eyes Turned Skyward

A courageous and heroic spaceman explores distant planets and galaxies in the wondrous but dangerous universe we inhabit. Inspired by retro comic images and childhood memories from space-themed movie and television serials,

2018 ART INSTALLATIONS

Kansas artist Steve Britt takes you on a new adventure.

South of Stage II

Steve Britt, Salina, KS

Lego Printing

Building up the fun, this installation allows festival goers to make fun and unique relief prints using Lego tiles that they can take home.

Shelter by Sound Garden

Two Tone Press, Kansas City, MO

Little Free Library: Festival Edition

Salina Public Library is offering a fun version of their Little Free Libraries service at the festival on Friday and Saturday. Library staff will be on hand to help you find the perfect book to read while enjoying the festival. Books for all ages and in a wide variety of genres and subjects will be available. There's no need to have a library card--take a book and pass it on!

West of Events Center Bridge

Salina Public Library

Oakdale/Carver Pool

This horizontal mural integrates the histories of Salina's summer fun activity – swimming! Quilt-like patterns mark a visual history of Salina from an aerial perspective.

North of Stage II

Molly Dillworth, Brooklyn, NY

2012 Salina Art Center Artist-in-Residence

Personalitrees

The trees in Oakdale Park come to life and show off their unique personalitrees.

Throughout the Park

Bob Ash-Lindsborg, KS

Tammy Jo Jarvis- Salina KS

Poetry Wall

Create your own poems and prose on the "S River Scroll"

West of Kenwood Bridge

Rich Bergen, Salina, KS

English Teachers & Students

Polycultural Prosperity: Systemic Disruption

This project is in partnership with The Land Institute. Backstrap weaving, environmentalism, polyculture and conscious consumption are at the heart of the project. The intention is to create a work of art that visually represents the polycultural interconnectedness that exists within a perennial landscape.

Shelter by Sound Garden

Neil Goss, Nomadic, KS

Reinventing the Wheel

The wheel is reinvented through this merger of design, art, engineering, fabrication and mechanical expertise. A true collaboration of minds, this kinetic Festival icon has changed the Festival landscape for more than 15 years.

Kenwood Bridge

Designed by David Exline - Aliso Viejo, CA
Engineered by the family of Exline Inc.

2018 ART INSTALLATIONS

Riverbank Mural

The natural landscape becomes a painter's canvas. Colin's spray techniques bring his riverbank design to life!

Riverbank at Kenwood Bridge

Colin Benson - Denver, CO

Something In The Air

Art takes to the skies above Oakdale.

Jim Martin & James Martin III - Charlotte, NC,

Roger Kenkel - Gibbon, NE

Trees - a Natural Canvas

The Festival canopy becomes a colorful and surreal experience.

West of Events Center Bridge

West of Demonstration Area

Alicia Firstbrook-Stott and Shelby Brin –
Manhattan, KS